

Being Christian in an Election Year – Duane Anders

Jesus was not a Democrat or a Republican. He seldom spoke against Rome, yet he gave powerless people ways to be powerful. He gave voice to the voiceless. How can we be Christians in an election year?

Duane Anders –For the last six years Duane has served with the staff team of the Cathedral of the Rockies/Boise First United Methodist Church as the lead Pastor. He has previously served the Stillwater UMC in Dayton, Ohio and concurrently as District Superintendent in West Ohio. He teaches at United Theological Seminary as a Doctoral mentor. Duane loves to travel, to learn, and to run. Duane and his wife Cathy have 4 children and are natives of West Virginia.
