

Serving Those with Mental Illness – Neysa Jensen

This workshop is an introduction to NAMI Treasure Valley and what they do. It will include a discussion on how faith leaders interact with people who have mental illness and ways to do better. Participants will be introduced to the new NAMI resource guide and learn how it can assist them in their work.

Neysa Jensen is on the Board of Directors of NAMI Treasure Valley. She also serves as Vice President of the Boise/Ada County Homeless Coalition. She has been a member of Cathedral of the Rockies since 1990, and is very active in the music program as a flutist and handbell player. Professionally, Neysa is a writer and editor, focusing her attention lately on writing fiction for teens.
